

CALL FOR PERFORMERS

Golden Gate Park 150th Celebration, with generous support from Grants for the Arts, is inviting proposals from performers to inaugurate the newly renovated Spreckels Temple of Music Bandshell at the Music Concourse during the winter holiday season.

Where: Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, California

When: December 10, 2020 through January 3, 2021

Deadline for priority applications: Tuesday November 24, 2020

(applications are reviewed on a rolling basis and will still be accepted beyond November 24, 2020)

In honor of Golden Gate Park's 150th Celebration, SF Recreation and Park Department and San Francisco Parks Alliance, with financial support from Grants for the Arts, are thrilled to announce a call for performers to utilize the newly renovated Spreckels Temple of Music bandshell in Golden Gate Park's Music Concourse.

We are seeking performance artists including dancers and instrumental musicians to partake in pop-up performances during the times and dates listed in the linked form below. All performers must abide by current health guidelines including mask wearing at all times.

Please NOTE: due to current health mandates, unfortunately no singing, brass or wind instruments are permitted. Performers are allowed to utilize existing audio equipment at the Bandshell, but must provide all other performance needs including instruments.

To View Dates, Times and Apply, please complete this linked form

Costs for Participants: Proposals are free to submit. All performing artists will be paid a stipend.
